PoliHire Strategy Opens Doors

(WASHINGTON, DC) PoliHire Strategy, LLC, opened for business on April 7, 2006. This executive search firm specializes in filling top-level positions for public sector and non-profit clients by providing a diverse pool of qualified candidates.

PoliHire Strategy, LLC offers a full array of executive search services tailored to each organization's business needs. For every position, a PoliHire consultant conducts a detailed needs analysis and develops a search plan. The consultant manages the entire process: identifying and assessing candidates, holding initial interviews with top candidates, conducting thorough background investigations, and facilitating client interviews.

Once an organization selects its candidate, PoliHire Strategy, LLC works with the client to extend the best offer and ensure a successful job transition.

"We provide particular expertise in the nuances of recruiting women and minorities to the executive suite," said President Kenyatta L. Uzzell. PoliHire Strategy, LLC maintains active memberships in a number of professional and minority associations and organizations.

PoliHire Strategy, LLC also works with individuals who seek leadership positions in the public or non-profit sectors.

Robert C. Bobb, City Administrator of the District of Columbia government, remarked that "Kenyatta Uzzell's recruiting expertise produced some of the District government's best executive hires. He is the consummate professional – smart and discreet, with a Rolodex full of national contacts."

PoliHire Strategy, LLC, is minority-owned and operated.
